THE Democratic machine in New York has defeated and humiliated the President-elect. The action of the New 108 W. SECOND STREET, MAYSVILLE, KY. York Electoral College in indorsing En-WARD MURPHY, Jr., as a Senatorial candidate was a declaration of defiant contempt for GROVER CLEVELAND.

THE daughter of the German Consul in Baltimore, Miss BERTIE VON LINGEN, showed a spirit becoming an American girl at a reception the other evening. Prince LEOPOLD VON ISENBURG Has for Sale the Following Choice Property: was present, and expressed a desire that was present, and expressed a desire that Miss von Lingen be presented to him. The young lady's reply was: "If Prince LEOPOLD VON ISENBERG wishes to meet me, let him do as any American or other gentleman would, and be brought to me," and he did so.

PROTECTION is not dead by any means. The result of the November election is a long ways from settling the question. A good many people evidently thought they would like to try Free-trade and so voted the Democratic ticket. They will have bad all they want of Free-trade before 1896. Protection is based on wages. If the same rate of wages prevailed over the world there would be no necessity for a Protective Tariff. Our manufacturers must reduce their scale of wages to the European standard the moment the Protective Tariff is abolished or go out of

THE liquor law which is to go into force in South Carolina on the 1st of next July will be stringent. It will prohibit the manufacture, sale, barter or exchange or the keeping and offering for sale, barter or exchange of any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors, or any compound or mixture thereof. State agents, however, will be empowered to sell liquor, but under such close restrictions as will put it out of the power of most people to buy it. Another clause in the law makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, for any club to have liquor in its possession, even if it is not sold or given away. The State Legislature tried to pass the most castiron liquor law in the world, and it appears to have done so. It is, however, the opinion of many who know the situation, that while the law will be strictly enforced against "niggers," the white chivalry of the state will still be able to assuage their thirst much as usual. If this should turn out to be the case, If this should turn out to be the case, the law will raise the moral status of the colored people, and lower that of the white people.

HER POOT WAS SQUEEZED.

Mrs. Virtue Pommier of Memphis Wants $5,000 Damages from the Illinois Central Railroad

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 18th-Mrs. Virtue Pommier of this city has brought suit in the United States Court here against the Illinois Central Railroad Company for $5,000 damages for permitting her foot to be squeezed while she was en route from Chicago to Memphis last sum-mer. The bill recites that: "While plaintiff was under the protection and in the custody of the company in the coach aforesaid of defendant's regular passenger train, which departed from Chicago on or about the 12th day of August, 1893 and while said train was en route to its Southern terminus, to-wit: Just prior to its arrival at Fulton, in the state of Kentucky, the said defendant permitted the plaintiff to be rudely assaulted by some person unknown to plaintiff, who then and there committed an unwarranted assault upon her person by seizing her foot and squeezing it violently, and otherwise frightened and intimidated plaintiff, caus-ing her great mental pain and mortification; and for the wrong and injury sustained and suffered as aforesaid hath sus tained great damage, to wit: In the sum of $5,000, wherefore she sues. The plaintiff further charges that the assailant was one of the company's servants.

To the critical reader it must appear that this good dame was a long time in finding out that her dainty little foot had been squeezed $5,000 worth by somebody who was then and is yet unknown to her. It is to be hoped that the squeezer will be discovered and properly punished for the outrage on the sensitive madame's feelings, and for his utter ignorance of the conventionalities existing in the circle to which the female person evidently belongs. The trouble with him was in squeezing her foot. He ought to have put one arm around is the largest daily her shapely waist, patted her under the chin, and squeezed her hand, &c.

ROBBED SYSTEMATICALLY.

The American Express Co. the Victim of Mysterious Stenlings.

New York, Jan. 16.—A morning paper, in an article beginning with the query, "Is the American Express Co. being systematically robbed?" says, "Many occurrences, it is said, have happened during the last few months which point atrongly to the belief that such is the case. such is the case.

"Since last June, in fact, package after package, each of great value, has disappeared and no trace of them has been found, although every effort has been made by the company to recover them. In July seven brilliant diamond pendants were shipped from this city to Rochester, but they never reached their destination. An ex-employe of the company yesterday said that the company placed the matter in the hands of Supt. Byrnes some time ago, and that he knew of two detectives who had been at work on the case for several weeks "In the company's circular, issued for December, it has a list of one hundred and eight articles that have been lost. It contains expensive furs, jewelry, ci-gars, cloaks, watches, clothes, silks and laces and many other things of equal value. The list of articles found without the proper mark contains two hundred and two packages, all the way from a stove lid and an old pair of la borer's shoes to a heavy bar of steel. The only thing of intrinsic value discovered in the list is a gold watch, marked 'C. B. Rouse,' six pieces of silver, 550 cigars and a half-dozen rubber overcoats.

GOOD PAPER! CLEAR PRINT! NEAT BINDING!

Dickens' Works are the most widely read of any novels printed in any language. The popularity of Dickens is ever increasing, and every person should own a full set of his works.

Charles Dickens is eminently the novelist of the people. His books teem with shafts of sparkling wit, touches of pathos, thrusts of satire; his characters are original and real as well as quaint and grotesque; he unmasks vice in all its forms. The lights and shadows of life are delineated in a thrilling and drainatic style. To own a complete set of his incomparable books is to be possessed of an inexhaustible mine of interesting literature. No person is well read who has not perused them.

Never before has the opportunity been presented for securing so much valuable reading matter for so small an amount. It is really a whole library of Standard Works at the price of the commonest trash. If you wish to get this set you should send in your order at once, that it may be among the first, and that you lose no time in enjoying the ownership of it.
